Rule 73 :-

Retirement : The date of compulsory retirement of a govt. servant is the date on which he attains the age of 60 years. He may be retained in service after the date of compulsory retirement with the sanction of the State Govt. on public grounds, which must be recorded in writing.

Rule 74 :-

a. The State Govt. may require any govt. servant who has complete 21 years of duty and 25 years of total service to retire from govt. service, if it considers that his efficiency or conduct is not such as to justify his retention in service. In this case no claim to special compensation shall be entertained.
